Sir,

We the inhabitants of the Seshadripuram Extension, most respectfully beg to submit that we have long felt the want of a temple in this isolated extension to foster our religious sentiments and we have accordingly enlisted the sympathies of a few well-to-do gentlemen devoted to the cause, and have also approached the City Municipal Council to grant us a site for locating the temple free of cost The Municipality in generously responding to our request has imposed, among others, the conditions of depositing with them a sum of Rs2,500/- as a guarantee for the successful completion of the temple in accordance to their approved design and estimate of Rs10,000/- within a definite time

2 We are extremely thankful for their kindness and bind ourselves to all their conditions except that of depositing with them Rs2,500/- as a guarantee, inasmuchas our contributions will be mostly in labour and materials and the cash contributions will be just enough to complete the construction of the temple and consecretion of the idol of Sri Rama in the temple

3 We therefore most respectfully appeal to you to recommend to the Municipal Council to grant us the site, without the restriction of the said deposit of Rs2,500/- and to grant us conditionally that if the other conditions are not fulfilled, they would be free to resume the site and the building thereon without any compensation being paid therefor

4 We sincerely hope that you would appreciate the troubles which lie in the way of erecting a temple purely from private contributions and recommend to the Municipal Council to grant us the

the site subject to the condition set forth in the preceding paragraph

Thanking you in anticipation,

We beg to remain,

Sir,
